

Three-horned Bedstraw - Photos

Galium tricornutum

Rubiaceae family

Courtesy John Moore

Courtesy John Moore

Courtesy John Moore

Dry pods

Largest plant on July 1. Top left has Sherardia seedling.
Courtesy John Moore

Three-horned Bedstraw seedling with surrounding Field Madder (Sherardia arvensis).
Courtesy John Moore

July 1. Note large cotyledon on bottom right.
Courtesy John Moore

HG6539

Courtesy John Moore

HG6538

Courtesy John Moore

Young plants grazed by sheep.

Courtesy John Moore

November in Barley

Courtesy John Moore

Courtesy John Moore

Courtesy John Moore

HG6418

Courtesy John Moore

HG6417

Leaf showing backward and forward pointing prickles.

Courtesy John Moore

Courtesy John Moore

Courtesy John Moore

Courtesy John Moore

Stem section -square and somewhat hollow.

Courtesy John Moore

Galium species
Courtesy John Moore

Lady's Bedstraw (Galium verum) Tasmania, October.
Courtesy John Moore

Acknowledgments:

Collated by HerbiGuide. Phone 08 98444064 for more information.